

Your Presence is requested for the celebration of Tobias Caraker

Full Military Honors for Tobias Caraker

Civil War Veteran

Ceremony to be held at 11am

25 May 2019

Fairmont Cemetery

835 Caruthers Ave,

Cape Girardeau, MO 63701

Old Section of the Cemetery,

Lot 22, Grave 8

Tobias Caraker

Born 14 Jan 1833

Jonesboro, Illinois

Died 17 August 1915

Moreland, Scott County, Missouri

Married to Sarah Jane Haire (Hare)

Son of Jacob Caraker

(Served in War of 1812)

and Phoebe Verble of Cabarrus NC

Grandson of

Andrew and Christine Caraker (Originally Karcher)

who supported the

Revolutionary War

and whose brother, George (Karcher) Karaker

and father, Johann Philip Karcher (Kerker) were soldiers.

Brother to Henry and Samuel Caraker who served by his side in the 109 and 11 Illinois Infantry. Also, brother to Elijah Caraker who served in the 31 Illinois Infantry Company E and James M. Caraker who was in the 6 Illinois US Cavalry, Company M.

Private

Tobias Caraker

109th Illinois Infantry, Company C transferred to 11th Illinois Infantry Company A. They were in the battle of Vicksburg and aided General Grant in several battles.

Civil War Service Dates

14 Aug 1862

14 Jul 1865

Events

Breakfast at Drury Inn in Jackson, MO at 800 am

225 Drury Lane, Jackson, MO 63755

Head over to the Cemetery at 900 am (arrive about 10 am)

835 Caruthers Ave,

Cape Girardeau, MO 63701

Old Section of the Cemetery

Lot 22, Grave 8

Ceremony starts at 11 am Blessing of the Grave and Full Military Honors (taps, gun salute, folding of Flags) with presence of Turner Brigade dressed in period costume and Sons of Civil War Union Veterans

Followed with a lunch at Ryans in Cape Girardeau

130 Vantage Dr, Cape Girardeau, MO 63701

A tour with William Caraker (Great Grandson of Tobias) of family and childhood locations in Cape Girardeau

For Further details contact Tammy at 405-650-1391

Monday Fort D in Cape Girardeau is having a Civil War Enactment for those who want to stay. See Brochure for further details.